

Seaton Park is a moderately hard seeded variety that shows very good spring growth. Seaton Park is susceptible to Clover Scorch but shows good tolerance to Phytophthora Root Rot. The variety is suited to light to medium soils in areas receiving 400mm-600mm annual rainfall.

- Early/mid maturing black seeded variety
- Very persistent variety even under heavy grazing and/or low rainfall
- Improved disease resistance over Dalkeith