

Clare is a black seeded sub clover of mid maturity. Clare is part of the Brachycalycinum sub species of sub clovers and as such it is suited to areas with alkaline soils. It shows very good early vigour and winter growth, and has an erect growth habit making it an ideal variety for use in hay production.

- Greater tolerance of alkaline soils than other sub clovers
- Excellent hay type
- Large seed relating to good seedling and winter vigour