

Saia oats are a tall black seeded grazing oat with a fine stem. It is fast to establish and will provide good quality quick feed for hay and silage. Saia grows in a wide range of soil types and has a good tolerance of acid soils. Pastures rebound well after grazing. Saia oats are also use widely in cover crop situations.

- Good Cover crop, forage or hay option
- Tolerant of acid soils
- Very fine stemmed oat variety