

Summer Feed Blend provides good quality production with the balancing fibre source of millet in the paddock with the brassicas. It is capable of keeping cows in lactation and weight gains on steers through the high summer temperatures.