

Rainfall 650mm+*Light soils

The Beef Light soils blend have been developed to suit areas with lighter textured soils. The demand on pasture species to handle this specific soil type, sees the creation of the perennial and annual species blend. The blend offers the grazer the ability to supply feed over the full growing season. When available moisture arrives there will be a flourish of growth to take full advantage of seasonal conditions.