

A selected blend of perennial grasses and medic clovers suited to production in areas of natural to high pH soils, producing a dense ground cover. These cultivars have been selected for vigour and viticultural application.