

Selected for growing in dryer areas of neutral to acidic soils, using the most resilient and productive varieties of grasses and covers. This perennial blend continues to perform well in tough growing conditions providing dense ground cover assisting in maintaining a weed free row.