

A combination of summer and winter active cultivars, this perennial seed formation of perennial grasses and clovers ensure producing a dense green permanent ground cover all year with a prostrate growth habit to reduce mowing requirements.